(Inside left)

Blenheim Meadow, in Cheswick Village on the outskirts of Bristol, boasts an attractive collection of, offering something for everyone.

Situated in South Gloucestershire on the outskirts of Bristol, Cheswick is an exciting village designed for life in the 21st century. Straddling the parish boundaries of Stoke Gifford, Filton and Lockleaze, Cheswick is surrounded by thriving businesses and the University of the West of England. Just a few miles from the city centre, close to Parkway train station and within easy reach of the M4 and M5 motorways, Cheswick is also a great location for commuters. Bristol railway station, at only a mile distance, serves London, Manchester, Edinburgh and Cardiff, while Bristol airport is just over 10 miles away. Proximity to Bristol city centre also means that shopping, entertainment, eating and drinking options are plentiful, as are choices of schools and many other of those short and long term necessities that modern life demands.
